My comments were made on the section 1 evaluation.

PDR is a very important course and i think Professor Bloomfield was a very effective professor. The only qualm i have is with the structure of the labs, i wish the structure was more relaxed in terms of late submissions.

All labs were useful to the course and the instructions for lab were clear! Our section's TAs were fantastic and quick to help anyone!

This course was extremely difficult but I learned more than I have in any other course. The professor was extremely interesting and knowledgeable. He was a very enjoyable and excellent professor. However, I don't feel my grade or the credits offered represent effort and learning totally accurately
